

Athabasca Basin Security at Cory Potash Mine Site

Primary Care Paramedic

Athabasca Basin Security is seeking a qualified PCP to fill a Casual position at the Nutrien Cory Potash Mine Site. Primary duties will include providing emergency medical care in an industrial/clinical setting, as well as providing security coverage and administrative support.

Job Requirements:

- Current (unrestricted) registration with the Saskatchewan College of Paramedics (NOCP 2011).
- Working knowledge of the legislation, protocols, and scope of practice for practicing level.
- Ability to communicate effectively both verbally and written.
- Licensed as a Security Officer in the province of Saskatchewan; or willing to train.
- Current CPR-HCP certification.
- Current ITLS certificate.
- Must be willing to work shift work (10/12hr Shifts - days, nights, and weekends).
- Competitive Wages/Benefits

About Athabasca Basin Security

Since 2002, Athabasca Basin Security has provided the Canadian mining industry's top companies with a full range of industrial security services in some of the country's most remote areas. Athabasca Basin Security head office is located in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. As an Aboriginal owned, award-winning security company, we're proud to create economic development for our shareholders and employment opportunities for people in Saskatchewan's Athabasca Basin region and beyond.

Please submit your resume and cover letter to:

Corey Grenier, Paramedic Supervisor
Athabasca Basin Security, Nutrien Cory Site

T: (306) 657-5199

corey.grenier@nutrien.com